Wrong views and deluded beliefs separate us from the sacred and the Earth Interbeing. The omnicidal culture promotes self-centeredness and rewards the willingness to harm for self-benefit. We cause great suffering through our daily behaviors, the consequences of which we ignore because of our belief in our superiority. By persistently taking from the Earth and life without ever giving back, we imperil the balance and harmony of the Earth Interbeing.

Sages dispel themselves and others of these wrong views and deluded beliefs to become whole with the sacred Earth Interbeing. They persistently nurture their interbeing through beneficial interactions with the Earth and life. By living the ways of wholeness of the Earth Interbeing<sup>1</sup>, sages remove what separates them from the sacred and they become whole.

<sup>1</sup> Ways of the Wholeness of the Earth Interbeing: We worship the sacred through fulfilling the great sacred command to care for and further the Earth Interbeing. We interbe with the Wholeness of the Earth Interbeing, interacting with all through equality, respect, and care so that life continues and thrives on Earth. We know and follow the sacred ways for all life may continue to interbe on Earth in ways that benefit all. We know and respond to the mutual neediness of life in ways that further the harmony of Earth Interbeing. We know and care for our place as the ground upon which we preserve the balance of Earth Interbeing by reciprocating for what we take through our stewardship of the Earth Interbeing. We live within interbeing's moral boundaries and Earth limits and learn from our life lessons how to overcome what keeps us apart. We respond to whatever we experience in the ways of the Earth Interbeing and hold ourselves accountable for our actions. We honor and submit to the sacred ways. 04/29/25)

As we move toward wholeness both as a being and an interbeing, we grow a sacred relationship, the temple within. This relationship nurtures and strengthens our path toward wholeness. Our faith in the transformative power of love deepens as we experience the sacred. The impossible becomes possible.

Line 5: In times of great harm, delusion, and division, the sacred command for caring for the Earth Interbeing provides the focal point and framework for recovery. Overcoming harm, delusion, and division release the emergence of wholeness.

Line 6: The line dispels its worship of money and property and distances itself from what harms. Its wholeness as a being and interbeing emerges.
